Re: Jenner & Block LLP v. Parallel Networks, LLC and epicRealm, L.P.
JAMS Arbitration No.: 1310019934

Dear Jamil:

Please be advised as follows:

1. Parallel Networks, LLC is in breach of its obligations under that certain Contingent Fee Agreement (“CFA”) dated on or about June 27, 2007, between Jenner & Block LLP and Parallel Networks, LLC’s predecessor epicRealm Licensing, LP (collectively “Parallel Networks”), which agreement was subsequently assumed by Parallel Networks, LLC.
2. Jenner & Block LLP provided services to Parallel Networks between June 2007 and February 2009 pursuant to the CFA. Jenner & Block LLP has not received any payment for the services provided to Parallel Networks under the CFA.
3. Parallel Networks’ failure to make payment to Jenner & Block LLP for services rendered under the CFA constitutes a breach by Parallel Networks of the CFA, including without limitation Parallel Networks’ obligations under Paragraph 9 of the CFA.
4. In full satisfaction of Parallel Networks’ breach of the CFA, Jenner & Block LLP hereby demands:
 - (a) $4,439,270.00; plus
 - (b) an agreement by Parallel Networks to pay 23% of any monies Parallel Networks receives in the future pursuant to that certain settlement agreement between Oracle Corporation and Parallel Networks, LLC dated May 13, 2011.

Demand is hereby made upon Parallel Networks for the payment of that sum.

5. Further explanation of the nature of Parallel Networks' breach and the basis therefore is contained in the demand for arbitration by Jenner & Block LLP previously served upon you on or about December 20, 2011, whose allegations are expressly incorporated herein.

Very truly yours,

Paul M. Koning
