152	10/20/2021	ORDER: granting 151 Letter Motion for Extension of Time. The continual requests for extensions of the stay are a burden on the Court. Accordingly, the stay and due date for the status letter is extended to January 31, 2022. Either side may end the stay at any time before that date by filing a letter on ECF so requesting. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Gabriel W. Gorenstein on 10/20/2021) (ama) (Entered: 10/20/2021)

		LETTER MOTION to Stay/LIFT Stay and advising Judge Broderick and Magistrate Judge Gorenstein the parties' respective positions as to how the case should proceed. addressed to Judge Vernon S. Broderick from Leigh Nathanson, Esq. The Court has reviewed Docket # 153 and rules as follows: The stay reflected in Docket # 140 is hereby vacated. The parties (or just Chanel) should file a new and separate letter to Judge Broderick that notes the reinstatement of the motion to dismiss and seeks a ruling on the briefing schedule and the request to file a reply brief with excess pages (without reference to any motion for a stay). Any motion for a stay is returnable before the undersigned. The Court's pre-motion conference requirement is waived. Briefing shall be in accordance with paragraph 2.B of the Court's Individual Practices. There is no stay, however, pending any motion for a stay. Thus, the parties must proceed as if no stay will be granted. Accordingly, the parties are directed to begin now to resolve any discovery disputes and to present any disputes to the Court after fully complying with paragraph 2.A of the Court's Individual Practices. If the parties prefer, a dispute (or all disputes) may be presented in the form of a joint letter as long as the letter sets forth in full each side's position. The Court assumes that both sides have an interest in beginning promptly the process of figuring out what their disputes are. The parties are welcome to use the process outlined in part B.1 through 3 of Chanel's proposal. It is the Court's preference that the parties provide proposals for remaining discovery deadlines by December 13, 2021, but if the parties prefer otherwise, they may stipulate to a later date. If appropriate, the parties may propose that a deadline be tied to the resolution of a particular discovery dispute. The Court does not see the point in holding a conference at this time. If a party still believes that this Order does not provide sufficient guidance, and that a conference is necessary or will be useful, it may request a conference with a more clear explanation of what the Court will be asked to resolve at the conference. And as set forth herein. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Magistrate Judge Gabriel W. Gorenstein on 11/22/2021) (ama) (Entered: 11/22/2021)

177	01/03/2022	ORDER: With regard to Docket ## 175 and 176, the process is better for everyone if a full conversation can be had on all outstanding issues before a party sends the Court a letter. Please try consulting again - and by telephone, not email, as much as possible. Accordingly, the application in Docket # 175 is denied without prejudice to another effort to comply with paragraph 2.A of the Court's Individual Practices. The Court would be much happier with a joint letter that lists each issue and each side's position but compliance with 2.A is sufficient. Certainly, the consultation process should not be unnecessarily drawn out. The Court would expect that a week or two would be more than sufficient to have a full consultation, though appropriate accommodation should be made for health-related impediments. SO ORDERED. Gorenstein from Leigh Nathanson, Esq. dated 2/10/2022. ; granting 165 Letter Motion to Seal; granting 173 Letter Motion to Seal; granting 178 Letter Motion to Seal; granting 179 Letter Motion to Seal; granting in part and denying in part 180 Letter Motion for Discovery. The Court issues this Order with respect to Docket ## 158, 180, 165, 173, 178, and 179. For the reasons stated on the record during the telephonic discovery conference held on March 10, 2022 (the "March 10 conference"), the Court grants Chanel's motion to stay discovery on defendant's counterclaims and unclean hands defense (Docket # 158). With regard to Docket # 180, the applications contained therein (with the exception of the privilege dispute that is being briefed separately) are granted in part and denied in part as stated on the record during the March 10 conference. Finally, the Court grants the motions to seal filed as Docket ## 165, 173, 178, and 179, because the material for which sealing is sought constitutes confidential business information and its public disclosure "could harm [the moving party's] competitive position or reveal a trade secret." 249	08/17/2022	MEMO ENDORSEMENT on re: 246 Letter,, filed by The RealReal, Inc. ENDORSEMENT: Parties should be as forthcoming as possible on the rate of their progress on document production, should provide realistic dates for when categories of documents will be produced, and then actually make the production on those dates or, if they are unable to do so, give a full explanation of why. In keeping with this principle, the Court sets a deadline of September 6, 2022, for the production of documents from Charles Heilbronn's Mousse Partners' email account and documents that "hit on metadata searches from TRR's search terms." As to other categories of documents, the Court agrees with plaintiff that the parties have not sufficiently discussed the application made in this letter with respect to those categories, including what is a reasonable deadline for production. Accordingly, the application in this letter is otherwise denied without prejudice to a new application compliant with paragraph 2.A of the Court's Individual Practices. So Ordered. Also, the Court is put into the difficult position of trying to match up disputes with each side's past and current views. The Court will no longer consider Docket ## 287, 298 or the latest filing, Docket # 328. Instead, the parties shall file a jointly-composed letter that lists each issue and as to that issue gives each side's position. List only the issues remaining in dispute.
